2024 GRAPHIC LITERATURE AWARD

The Oregon Book Award in Graphic Literature honors outstanding graphic literature by Oregon's cartoonists and graphic novelists. A panel of three out-of-state judges determine the winner and finalists.

The finalists for the 2024 Oregon Book Awards will be announced in January 2024, and the winners will be announced at the Oregon Book Awards Ceremony in April 2024.

Please read the following guidelines carefully.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- Eligible entries are printed and bound comics and graphic literature. An ISBN is required.
- Either the primary writer or primary artist must be an Oregon resident whose legal residence is in Oregon at least six months of the year. A resident who moves away from Oregon permanently after the submission deadline will be disqualified. A qualified resident who dies after submitting their publication may receive a posthumous award.
- Publications must have an original publication date between September 1, 2021, and August 31, 2023. In the case of a collected work, this timeframe applies to the publication date of the entire volume. A reprint of a book previously published as a volume before September 1, 2021 is not eligible.
- The award is for the primary artist and/or the primary writer; editors are not eligible. If both the primary artist and primary writer are Oregonians, they will share the award.
- Anthologies containing multiple works created by multiple authors and multiple artists are not eligible.
- Works that are essentially wordless (text on less than 20% of the pages in a work) are only eligible if the primary artist is an Oregonian.
- The award is not given for translation; if the text is a translation by an Oregonian and the primary artist is not an Oregonian, the work is not eligible.
- The award is not given to a writer for adaptation of work previously published by other authors (such as graphic adaptations of classic literature). If the text is an adaptation by an Oregonian and the primary artist is not an Oregonian, the work is not eligible.
- A title that is submitted for the Graphic Literature award is not eligible for submission in any other genre for the Oregon Book Awards. Work that has been previously submitted to the Oregon Book Awards is not eligible.
- Work authored or published by Literary Arts staff, trustees, or Programs for Writers Advisory Council members, as well as their immediate families, are precluded from consideration for Oregon Book Awards. Literary Arts staff, trustees, and Programs for Writers Advisory Council members are also precluded from serving as Oregon Book Awards or Oregon Literary Fellowship jurors and from receiving Oregon Literary Fellowships. Work authored by former Literary Arts staff, trustees, or Programs for Writers Advisory Council members may be considered, provided that the staff member, trustee, or Programs for Writers Advisory Council member resigned from their position at Literary Arts at least six months before the earliest submission date.
- In the event of a dispute regarding a title's eligibility, Literary Arts will make the final decision on eligibility.
- Literary Arts reserves the rights to refuse a submission for any reason.
