

Oregon Book Award Winners & Finalists in Graphic Literature

2012 – 2024

In 2011, with the support of the Pacific Northwest College of Art, Literary Arts established a new award for Graphic Literature. This award is given every two years.

YEAR	FINALISTS	WINNER
2024	Matthew Bogart and Jesse Holden of Portland, Incredible Doom: Volume 2 (HarperAlley/HarperCollins) Kelly Sue DeConnick of Portland, Wonder Woman Historia: The Amazons (DC Comics) Greg Means of Lake Oswego, Asylum (Tugboat Press) David F. Walker of Portland, Bitter Root Omnibus (Image Comics)	Kerilynn Wilson of Oregon City, The Faint of Heart (Greenwillow Books/HarperCollins)
2022	Cat Farris of Portland, The Ghoul Next Door (HarperAlley, HarperCollins) Matt Fraction and Steve Lieber of Portland, Superman's Pal Jimmy Olsen: Who Killed Jimmy Olsen? (DC Comics) Sarah Mirk of Portland, Guantanamo Voices: True Accounts from the World's Most Infamous Prison (Abrams ComicArts) Aron Nels Steinke of Portland, Field Trip: A Graphic Novel (Mr. Wolf's Class #4) (Graphix, Scholastic)	Breana Bard of Portland, Trespassers: A Graphic Novel (Graphix, Scholastic)

2020	Cat Farris of Portland, My Boyfriend is a Bear (Oni Press) Maria Capelle Frantz of Portland, The Chancellor and the Citadel (Iron Circus Comics) Dylan Meconis of Portland, Queen of the Sea (Walker Books) Aron Nels Steinke of Portland, Mystery Club: Mr. Wolf's Class #2 (Graphix)	Greg Means and MK Reed of Portland, Penny Nichols (Top Shelf Productions)
2018	Jonathan Case of Portland, The New Deal (Dark Horse Comics) Kelly Sue Deconnick of Portland, Bitch Planet Volume 2: President Bitch (Image Comics) Barry Deutsch of Portland, Hereville: How Mirka Caught a Fish (Amulet Books) Paul Tobin of Portland, Bandette: Volume 3: The House of the Green Mask (Dark Horse Comics)	Nicole J. Georges of Portland, Fetch: How a Bad Dog Brought Me Home (Houghton Mifflin Harcourt)
2016	Erika Moen of Portland, Oh Joy, Sex Toy (Erika Moen Comics & Illustration) Jeff Parker of Portland, Meteor Men (Oni Press) Elizabeth Rusch and Mike Lawrence of Portland, Muddy Max (Andrews McMeel Publishing) Paul Tobin and Colleen Coover of Portland, Bandette Volume 2: Stealers Keepers (Dark Horse Comics)	Ariel Cohn and Aron Nels Steinke of Portland, The Zoo Box (First Second Books)
2014	Steve Duin and Shannon Wheeler of Portland, Oil and Water (Fantagraphics Books) Natalie Nourigat of Portland, Between Gears (Image Comics) Joe Sacco of Portland, Journalism (Metropolitan Books) Craig Thompson of Portland, Habibi (Pantheon)	Barry Deutsch of Portland, Hereville: How Mirka Met a Meteorite (Amulet Books)
2012	Graham Annable of Portland, Book of Grickle (Dark Horse Comics) Aidan Koch of Portland, The Whale (Gaze Books) Sarah Oleksyk of Portland, Ivy (Oni Press) Greg Rucka of Portland, Stumptown (Oni Press)	Joe Sacco of Portland, Footnotes in Gaza (Metropolitan Books)